ABP No.: 1477/2026
F.I.R. No. 286/2025
P.S. Name: Gaighat
U/Section.: 80 and 3(5) of B.N.S.
Dated: 29.05.2026
Present: Sri Ajay Kumar, learned P. P. for the State.
Sri Mukesh Kumar , learned counsel for the petitioner/accused.

1. Heard, learned P.P. for the State and the learned Counsel on behalf of the petitioners/accused 1. Bindeshwar Prasad Singh, son of late Ram Prikshan Singh, 2. Rita Devi, wife of Bindeshwar Prasad Singh 3. Sashibha Devi, wife of Rupesh Kumar Singh, 4. Chanchal Devi, wife of Mani Shankar Singh and 5. Mamta Devi, W/o Anirudh Kumar Singh.
2. The Petitioners are seeking anticipatory bail under section 482 of the BNSS apprehending their arrest in Gaighat P.S.Case No.286/2025, registered under sections 80 and 3(5) of B.N.S.
3. Ld. counsel for the petitioners submits that no other bail petition either regular or anticipatory has been previously moved before this court or the Hon'ble High Court.
4. The Ld. Counsel for the petitioners have submitted that they are innocent and have been falsely implicated in this case. Petitioners are in-laws family members of the deceased woman. Nothing has happened as in the manner alleged rather the fact is that deceased caught fire while cooking and thereafter, she was shifted to hospital, where she died during course of treatment. The informant of this case has also filed a petition stating therein that she filed the case due to communication gap and some misunderstanding and now she does not want to proceed with the case. The petitioners have got no previous criminal antecedent. Accordingly, learned Counsel has prayed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.
5. The prosecution story in brief is that informant Baby Devi has alleged in her fard beyan that on 25.08.2025 at about 08.00 am, she got information from the Sasural of her daughter Sonali Singh that her in-laws family members set her on fire by pouring kerosene oil and she was being treated in a nearby hospital. On getting such information, informant alongwith her husband reached there and seeing her precarious condition, she was taken to SKMCH, where she died during course of treatment in the night of 27.09.2025.

6. The learned P.P. for the state opposed the present anticipatory bail petition.
7. Perused the record as well as the case diary. It is evident that the the informant in her further statement in para-29 of case diary has categorically stated that during course of cooking, fire caught in the clothes of her daughter Sonali Singh, due to which, she sustained severe burn injury and thereafter, she was taken to Medical for treatment. She did not get actual facts, as such, she had given wrong fard beyan. The informant further stated that family members of her daughter are not involved in the incident.
8. In view of the aforesaid facts and taking into account the statement of informant as well as circumstances on record, I find that the petitioners deserve privilege of pre-arrest bail. Accordingly, prayer of petitioners, named above, is allowed and as such, they in the event of their arrest or surrender in the court concerned within four weeks period from the date of communication of this order, are directed to be released on bail on furnishing bail bonds of Rs. 10,000/- (ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned court concerned subject to following conditions:
  - The petitioners shall co-operate with the investigating agency as well as in the trial, as and when required.
  - The petitioners shall not directly or indirectly make any inducement, threat, or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case.
  - The petitioners shall not tamper with the evidence-witness in any manner.
