ORDER

Date : 07/05/2026

1. The above named petitioner seek anticipatory bail in connection with Ahiyapur P.S. Case No. 1369/2023 for offences punishable U/S 304(B)/34 of IPC.
2. The learned counsel for the petitioners have submitted that they are innocent and they had committed no offence as alleged in the FIR and has falsely been implicated in this case. The petitioners had earlier filed no bail application before this court or before the Hon'ble High Court.
3. The prosecution case in brief is that on 18.10.2023 at about 3:00 pm by telephonic called informant acknowledged that accused persons killed the sister of informant by throatling when the informant enquired that how the death of his sister, no solid reply was given. It is said by the people that sometime before she went to collect the fire wood and thereafter she died. It is also alleged by the informant that there was signed of throatling on the neck of deceased. The petitioner has no criminal antecedent as per para – 3 of bail application. Hence, prayer was made to grant pre-arrest bail.

4. Per contra, the Ld. A.P.P. has opposed the bail plea.
5. Rival contentions of the parties were heard and, perused the record. From perusal of the record, it appears that police has already submitted final form against the petitioners. They were not sent up as being found innocent. Nor cognizance has been taken disagreeing with the police report. As such, this court finds that there is no apprehension of arrest any more.
6. Considering the aforesaid facts and circumstances, I am of the considered opinion that the present anticipatory bail application is not maintainable, for complete lack of any apprehension by the police. Accordingly, the petition for anticipatory bail is hereby disposed of with liberty that they may approach the court again, if cognizance is also taken against these accused petitioners. Let the copy of this order be communicated to the concerned Court of Ld. .C.J.M, Muzaffarpur for information and needful.
