

COURT OF SESSIONS JUDGE, NALANDA, BIHARSHARIF

A.B.P. No. 1158 / 2026

Vikash Kumar Vs. The State of Bihar

13.07.2026

The present petition for anticipatory bail has been filed on behalf of petitioner, Vikash Kumar, who is apprehending his arrest in connection with Noorsarai P.S. Case No. 255/2026 registered for the offences punishable u/s. 109, 3(5) of the B.N.S. 2023 and Sections 27, 25(9) of the Arms Act.

Heard the learned counsel Mr. Md. Nusrat Perwaiz for the petitioner as well as learned P.P. Sri Anuj Kumar on behalf of the State.

Learned lawyer of the petitioner has submitted that earlier, no bail petition either anticipatory or regular has been filed on behalf of the petitioner either before this Court or the Hon'ble High Court. The petitioner has got no criminal antecedent. He further submitted that the petitioner is innocent, has committed no offence and he has falsely been implicated in the present case. The alleged Sections have got no application either in the case or against the petitioner. No shots were fired during that time. No bullets were recovered by the Police from the place of occurrence. The informant and the petitioner are villagers. Hence, the petitioner be granted anticipatory bail.

Learned P.P. opposed the prayer for anticipatory bail of the petitioner.

The prosecution case in brief, is that informant Raushan Kumar gave a written petition to the S.H.O. of Noorsarai P.S. alleging therein that on 29.04.2026, the informant came to village- Pariauna from his village in the wedding procession of his villager Ranjan Kumar. During the wedding, songs were being played at the time of Jaimala in which boys of his village and boys of Pariauna were also dancing. During that, his villager Vikash Kumar was holding a country made rifle and 03-04 unknown persons were also holding country made pistol, who were dancing and firing bullets. During the firing by Vikash Kumar, the bullet scraped his head causing injury to him. Thereafter, villagers brought him to Noorsarai Hospital for treatment.

Heard the learned lawyer for the petitioner as well as the learned P.P. for the State and perused the case record as well as the case diary. The allegation against the petitioner is of injuring the informant in celebratory firing. The case diary discloses that there is no recovery of any shells at the place of occurrence and the injury report in Para 58 of the case diary further reveals a simple injury caused by hard and blunt substance. The petitioner has claimed to have clean antecedent.
