Present : Jai Prakash Chaudhary,

B.P. No. 1007 of 2026, CNR No. BRNL010046702026

Arising Out of Noorsarai PS. Case No.-257 of 2026

11.07.2026. The parties have already compromised the matter and a compromise petition has been filed before the learned C.J.M., Nalanda.

Learned A.P.P opposed the prayer for bail and submitted that the petitioner actively participated in the occurrence. It is further submitted that the allegations disclose a serious and violent occurrence committed inside the house of the informant.

Heard both sides and considered the rival submissions and the materials available on record, it appears that the injury report reveals simple injuries. However, the F.I.R. contains that the co-accused caught hold of the informant while the petitioner assaulted him with a deadly weapon. And materials available on record, it appears that the injury report of informant Pappu Singh reveals the following injuries, Lacerated wound over right forearm with abrasion over right elbow. Lacerated wound over left forearm dorsal aspect, Abrasion over right abdomen, Abrasion over right thigh and knee. Radiological examination of both forearms shows no acute fracture or dislocation. Medical opinion records that injury nos. 3 and 4 are simple in nature and injury nos 1 and 2 are also simple in nature as per radiological opinion X Ray Radiograph Forearm Left and Right impression, no acute traumatic injury, no significant abnormality and caused by hard and blunt substance. The petitioner has remained in judicial custody since 11.07.2026. The investigation has substantially progressed, the petitioner has no criminal antecedent, and the parties are stated to have entered into a compromise. There is nothing on record to indicate that the petitioner is likely to abscond or tamper with the prosecution evidence if enlarged on bail. The object of bail is to secure the presence of the accused during trial and not to inflict pre-trial punishment.

Considering the period of custody, the nature of injury, the absence of criminal antecedent, the compromise between the parties, and the overall facts and circumstances of the case without expressing any opinion on the merits of the prosecution case, this court is of the considered opinion that the petitioner deserves the privilege of regular bail. Hence, let the petitioner be released on bail on furnishing bail bond of two sureties of Rs. 10,000/- like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned court below
