5. There is general and omnibus allegation levelled against this petitioner that he was wielding iron rod in his hand. Specific allegation levelled against is upon other co-accused, Birendra Singh, who is alleged to assaulted the informant over his head by sharp cutting edged weapon i.e. Garasa, who is not the petitioner over here. The injury report has been brought on record, which shows a lacerated wound on occipital region of size 3"X1/4"X1/6". The said injury was found to be simple caused by hard and blunt substance not by sharp cutting edged weapon Garasa which does not corroborate the story of the prosecution.
