Contd. 19.06.2026 17/06/2026	No.149/2024 under Section 25(1-B)A, 26 of the Arms Act, in both the cases, he is on bail. It has been further submitted that the petitioner is quite innocent and has committed no offence as alleged rather he has been falsely been implicated in this case due to dirty village politics. It has been further submitted that there is land dispute in between the parties and there is case and counter case between the parties, too. Hence, anticipatory bail petition of petitioner may be allowed. On the contrary learned P.P. opposed the prayer for anticipatory bail of the petitioner. 5. The petitioner and informant are own relative and due to land dispute the matter arose between them. The allegation against this petitioner he along with other co-accused assaulted the husband of the informant by iron rod and piece of brick. The injury report has been brought on record, which shows, the injury suffered by informant is pain in body, which was found to be simple in nature caused by hard and blunt substance and injury found on the person of Guddu Kumar is body pain which was found to be simple in nature caused by hard and sharp object. The petitioner is accused in Govindpur P.S. Case No.148/2024 dated
