O R D E R

1. The three petitioners seek anticipatory bail in connection with Gardanibagh P.S. Case No. 89 of 2026, registered for offences under Sections 115(2), 126(2), 281, 303(2), 324(4), read with Section 3(5) of the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023 (BNS).
2. The prosecution case, in brief, is that the informant, Pushpit Srivastava, was on his way to his senior's chamber from Janta Road at about 4:30 p.m. Upon reaching the SBI ATM, he encountered three unidentified individuals performing stunts on two motorcycles. Both riders struck the informant, causing him to fall headlong and sustain injuries to his chest and waist. When he attempted to get up, the assailants assaulted him further. They then smashed his mobile phone and fled, snatching approximately ₹12,000 from his pocket along with a gold chain from his neck. The motorcycles bore registration numbers BR-01 FR 7860 and BR-01 HX 7219.
3. Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that the only non-bailable offence invoked is Section 303(2) of the BNS, which carries a maximum sentence of five years' imprisonment and is triable by a Magistrate. It is further argued that the allegations of snatching cash and a gold chain are vague and omnibus in nature. Learned counsel contends that the incident arose from a trivial dispute and emphasizes that the petitioners have no prior criminal record.
4. For a better appreciation of this anticipatory bail application, the office is directed to requisition the case diary and the criminal antecedents of the accused-petitioners from the Investigating

Officer of this case.

5. At this juncture, learned counsel for the petitioners prays for interim protection from arrest.
6. Having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case; the nature of the offences, the extent of punishment prescribed upon conviction, the general and omnibus nature of the allegations, and the submissions regarding the petitioners' antecedents, interim protection from arrest is granted to the petitioners until the next date of hearing in Gardanibagh P.S. Case No. 89 of 2026. The petitioners are, however, directed to cooperate with the Investigating Officer and remain available whenever required by the police.
7. Re-notify this case on 06.03.2026.
