recovered from her personal possession and that the mandatory provisions of the NDPS Act were not properly complied with. The petitioner has remained in judicial custody since 29.04.2026, and on these grounds, a prayer was made for grant of regular bail.

5. Per contra, learned Special Public Prosecutor opposed the bail application, submitting that a total of 1.685 kilograms of ganja was recovered, which exceeds the threshold of small quantity under the NDPS Act. He further pointed out that the petitioner has a criminal antecedent as Digha P.S. Case No. 37/2024 dated 20.01.2024 under Section 8/20(b)(ii)(A) of the NDPS Act. It was also emphasized that the investigation is still in progress and the charge sheet has not yet been filed. Considering the gravity of the allegations, it was urged that the petitioner is not entitled to regular bail.
6. Having regard to the nature of the accusations, the recovery of 1.685 kilograms of ganja exceeding the small quantity threshold under the NDPS Act, the submissions of the learned Special Public Prosecutor, the petitioner's prior criminal antecedent particularly being under NDPS Act, and the fact that the investigation is ongoing with the charge sheet yet to be filed, this Court is of the considered view that the present case does not warrant grant of regular bail.
7. Accordingly, the application for regular bail filed on behalf of the petitioner, Anita Devi, stands rejected.
