Lastly, he has submitted that the petitioners belong to a respectable family and they are law abiding citizen, so there is no chance of their absconding. On Perusal of the case record, it appears that a joint compromise petition dt.25-02-2026 has been filed on behalf of the above named petitioners and informant of this case, in which it has been stated that due to the intervention of their well wishers, they have compromised the present case with the informant in out side the court. Due to compromise they further do not want to proceed with the case, and accordingly, they have (parties) put their signatures on the joint compromise petition. Hence, they prayed to accept the compromise petition filed on behalf of them.
