O R D E R

1. An anticipatory bail petition, dated 11-03-2026, supported with an affidavit, has been filed on behalf of the above named petitioners in connection with K.Hat P. S. Case No. 66/2026, U/s- 316, 314,318,336, 338, 3(5) of B.N.S and was pressed today for hearing by the Ld. Counsel for the petitioners. A copy of petition was also served upon to ld. Adl. P.P. Heard Sri Sumit Kr. Suman, learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioners, as well as Sri Rahul Raja, Ld. Addl. P.P. for the State.

2. Brief of the case, as per the F.I.R is that, informant is a company incorporated under the companies Act and is engaged in the business of Providing Manufacturing and supply chain solutions. The petitioners approached the informant and dishonestly induced the informant to part with a huge advance amount on the false assurance that Ductile Iron Pipes of Grades K-7 Electrotherm. K-9 Electrotherm and MM K-9 Electrotherm would be supplied within the stipulated time and of agreed quality. The petitioners with dishonest intention, showed forged and fabricated documents including fake work orders and false credentials of reputed customers, to create a false impression and credibility resulting which informant advanced a total sum of rupees 3,02,56,857/-, to the petitioner's company for supplying of materials and the petitioner issued four cheques bearing no. 141029, 141030, 141031, 2168-80 to gain confidence and the same could be presented in case non-supply of material. Despite receiving the aforesaid amount the petitioners failed to supply any material and the cheques issued have dishonored. ON repeated phone calls, emails and personal visits made by the informant demanding either material or money were deliberately ignored. On aforesaid complaint petition of the complainant F.I.R was lodged accordingly.

3. Ld. Counsel on behalf of the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are innocent and committed no offence as alleged. Criminal proceedings cannot be used as a tool for recovery of money or to settle civil disputes. The investigation is based entirely on documentary material and all the documents are already available with the complainant and the investigating agency therefore, custodial interrogation of the petitioner is not required. The petitioners are ready and willing to furnish sound and solvent surety to the satisfaction of this Court. The petitioners undertake to fully co-operate with the investigation and to appear before the investigation officer. Hence, let the petitioners be granted bail.

4. The Ld A.P.P opposed the prayer of bail.

5. Heard the rival submission and Perused. As per the averments made in the F.I.R as well according to oral argument of Ld. APP and Ld. defence counsel it appears a dispute of civil nature case involving money dispute and more over on the previous date informant being present physically before the Court, submitted written no objection for granting bail to the petitioners which is available on the record. The petitioners have given undertaking that they will cooperate in trial and will not temper the evidence. In view of the aforesaid facts and circumstances of the case the prayer of anticipatory bail of the petitioners is hereby allowed. The above named petitioners are directed to be released on anticipatory bail in the event of their arrest or surrender before the learned Court below within a period of fifteen days from receipt of this order on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 20,000/- (Twenty thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned Court below.

6. Copy of the order be sent to the concerned Court of Ld. C.J.M, Purnea.
