

IN THE COURT OF 01st DISTRICT & ADDL. SESSIONS JUDGE,
ROHTAS AT SASARAM
Title Appeal No. 132 of 1997
Sanjay Kumar & Ors. Vs. Sunil Kumar & Ors.

| Date of Order | Order with signatures of Court | Action taken by office with date |
|-------------------|--|----------------------------------|
| 08.04.2026 | Heard, the learned counsel for the appellants and the respondents. The learned counsel for both the sides have pressed the compromise petition of dated 01st of February, 2025. The learned counsel for the parties have pressed upon the compromise petition and submitted that the evidence has been produced in the back-drop of such compromise between the parties, pertaining to all peace of lands, so where part of the suit before the original Court and has prayed to disposed of the appeal in such light and prayer. In view of the prayer so made, it appears from perusal of the compromise petition and the whole of the record before this Court, having glimpse over the compromise petition, it appears that the learned counsel for the appellants has identified of appellants and their photographs and the learned counsel for the respondents have identified the photographs of respondents but they have failed to identify the signatures of their respective parties, it is not a legal way to identify the parties by their counsel. The identification of signatures of the parties by their respective counsel are the necessity under the law, to enable this Court to proceed further relying of the contents of the compromise petition. In this state of facts, this Court directs the learned counsel for the parties to duly identify the signatures of all the parties of the matter for whom they are appearing as lawyer, so that this Court may tread ahead to pass final order. Put up tomorrow dated 09.04.2026 awaiting the compliance of the party of the learned counsel for the party. (Dict.) (Illegible) 01st D.J & A.S.J. Rohtas at Sasaram | |

| | | |
|--|--|--|
| | | |
|--|--|--|