

Order

IO has submitted the final form and found that case is not made out or happening was held but no accused was traced. Hence he found the occurrence true but there is no clue for that or the case is not true. IO has all ready sent notice to informant as per the record and the court too sent a notice to the informant to be appeared in court and explain any problem if he has regarding the investigation on the date fixed. Today the case is fixed on hearing of the final form submitted by the IO of the case. Heard learned SDPO on the point of accepting final form. He told that he has no objection as the informant did not raised any objection yet. Hence final form is accepted with a direction that if informant has any objection then it may be registered as complaint. Oc to deposit record in record room.
