16-05-2023: Today this case is put up before me for hearing on point of summoning order. Case Called out. No one appeared.

Perused the case record and it transpires that from inception till date neither the S.A. of the complainant was recorded nor any witness appeared. It is a clear indication of reluctance of the complainant regarding this case.

In these situation as the story narrated by the complainant can not be substantiated by other source. Accordingly, the narration of the complainant can not be accepted as gospel truth. At this juncture it is also pertinent that without any substantial material, other parties can not be summoned.
