Ranju Devi Vs State of Bihar

Date of order of proceedings	Order with signature of the Court	Office action taken with date
18 /06/2026	Heard both the sides on the anticipatory bail application no. 579/2026 which originates from Saharsa Sadar P.S case no. 601/2024 u/s- 147, 148, 149, 341, 323, 354(B), 307 & 504 of IPC, filed by one Ranju Devi. It is submitted on behalf of the petitioner that the alleged serious section 307, 354(B) is not attracted against the petitioner and other sections are bailable in nature, hence petitioner may be enlarged on anticipatory bail. The ld. Lawyer appearing on behalf of the states fairly submits before the court that only allegation against this petitioner is that the petitioner has used vulgar abusive language against the informant Sanju Devi. Having heard both the sides, perused the case record and finds that the only allegations against the petitioner is that she has used vulgar abusive language against the informant Sanju Devi except that nothing overt act is attributed against this petitioner, although the petitioner has also been named as a accused for the offence punishable u/s- 147, 148, 149, 341, 323, 354(B), 307 & 504 of IPC. Having considering the material available on record the court finds that this is fit case to be enlarge the petitioner on anticipatory bail hence, it is directed that in the event of arrest/surrender petitioner to be released on bail after furnishing bail bond of 4,000 with two surities of like amount and subject to other conditions laid down u/s 438(2) of the Cr.P.C. With the aforesaid observations the anticipatory bail application no. 579/2026 as filed by the petitioners stands allowed. Dictated Sd/- District Addl. Sessions Judge-I Saharsa
