Rival submissions considered, Record perused. 6. The case of the prosecution, as per typed report of the informant, Shashidhar Yadav is that on 13.06.2026 at about 22:20 O'clock when his son went towards his house in the meantime Ranvir Yadav alongwith his associates driving his vehicle rashly and negligently. When his son tried to contact with Ranbir Yadav for his rash and negligent driving then the accused threatened to shoot him. After sometime Ranvir Yadav, Pappu Yadav, Mohan Yadav and Rampukar Yadav alongwith three unidentified persons whom he can not identify due to darkness came there and began firing in the air. The incident terrified his entire family. After the said incident five empty cartridges were recovered from the spot. 7. Admittedly the petitioner is having no license to possess the arm as this court has put a specific query to the learned counsel for the petitioner whether the petitioner is having any license to possess the arm and the learned counsel for the petitioner replied in the negative. ‘ 8. There are allegation in the FIR that the petitioner alongwith other co-accused persons fired at the house of the informant. PW Mahendra Yadav, PW Rajendra Yadav and PW Bijendra Yadav have supported the allegation of firing by the petitioner. Since the petitioner has no license to possess the arm therefore the firearm must have been secured by the petitioner illegally. 9. Possessing firearm is a non-bailable offence. It is not clear whether the firearm was of simple firearm or whether it was of prohibited category. 10. To recover the firearm the custodial interrogation of the petitioner is required.
