Petitioner has filed an amendment petition under order 6 Rule 17 C.P.C. stating therein that the testator Most. Jaimian Devi executed will dt. 07.11.1992 in favour of the petitioner with respect to the Khata No. 288 R.S.P No. 1702 area 46 dismal along with other lands. The testator Most. Jaimian Devi has sold this land, but due to mistake R.S.P. No. 1702 area 46 dismal has been added by amendment in Schedule - 1 of the probate petition. Which should be amended.

Lastly, he prayed that court be pleased to delete the R.S.P. No. 1702 area 46 dismal from the probate petition.

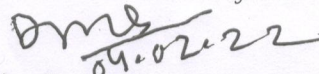

O.P. No. 2 has filed the rejoinder to the petition of the applicants dt. 7th April, 2021 stating therein that petition of applicant is not amended in the eye of law. Lastly, Khata No. 28, Kheshra No. 1702 area 46 dismal was amended.

Later on, to delete this Kheshra, applicant has filed this application. Ld. Advocate for O.P.2 has further submitted that by giving several amendments petition, applicants wants to puzzle, the O.P no. 2 and try to linger this case.

Lastly he prayed before the court that application of applicant should be rejected.

Heard, both the sides. Amendment application seems to formal in nature, which does not affect the material merit of this case. So, the application of petitioner under order 6 Rule 7 C.P.C dt. 07th April, 2021 is allowed at the cost of Rs. 500/-.
