A.B.P. Case No. 110/2026
Sheohar P.S. Case No. 103/2026
Awadesh Kumar singh Vs. State of Bihar

ORDER

30.03.2026

The anticipatory bail petition dated 18.03.2026 has been filed on behalf of the petitioner namely 1. Awadesh Kumar Singh, in connection with Sheohar P.S. Case No. 103/2026 registered for the offence u/s 316(5), 318(4) of B.N.S. the same has been put today for the order.

The prosecution story in brief is that on 27.02.2026 the R.M. School Sugai has been inspected by informant Amrendra Kumar under the P.M. Poshan Scheme, sheohar, and it has been stated that in the FIR that it appears to the informant that there is same irregularities in the management of the aforesaid Scheme by the Head master of the aforesaid school. After inspection inquiry is going on against the Head master of the school and during inquiry this FIR has been instituted by the inspecting officer / informant / Amrendra Kumar.

The Learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is innocent and he has committed no offence whatsoever as alleged. The prosecution case as alleged is false, frivolous, baseless and concocted. The petitioner has no criminal antecedent. The petitioner is respectable person of the locality and sound sureties are ready to stand his bailors. It is, therefore, prayed that the petitioner should be allowed anticipatory bail.

The Ld. Special P.P. opposed the anticipatory bail application and stated that the petitioner is not innocent and he has committed the offence U/s 316(5), 318(4) of B.N.S. Therefore, the anticipatory bail application of the petitioner / accused person should be rejected.

Heard both the parties and perused the record.

After perusal of the F.I.R it is clear that the case has been instituted U/s 316(5), 318(4) of B.N.S. From perusal of case record, it appears that the petitioner has no criminal antecedent and matter is still pending for inquiry and during inquiry the hasty FIR has been instituted against the petitioner and the same is misuse of legal proceedings.

Thus, considering the aforesaid facts and circumstances of the case this Court is inclined to admit the petitioner to anticipatory bail. It is therefore ordered that in the event of arrest or surrender before the trial court within four weeks from the date of this order the accused person / petitioner namely, 1. Awadesh Kumar Singh, is directed to be released on bail after furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000 (Ten Thousands) with two sureties with condition that he will comply the conditions mentioned under section 482(2) of B.N.S.S.
