A.B.P. Case No. 129/2026

Sheohar Mahila P.S. Case No. 08/2026

Manoj Sah @ Manoj Kumar Sah & others. Vs. State of Bihar

ORDER

19.05.2026

The anticipatory bail petition dated 25.03.2026 has been filed on behalf of the petitioners namely 1. Manoj Sah @ Manoj Kumar Sah, 2. Rubby Devi and 3. Jaykishor Sah in connection with Sheohar Mahila P.S. Case No. 08/2026 registered for the offence u/s 126(2), 115(2), 85, 352, 351(2), 3(5) of B.N.S & 3/4 D.P. Act the same has been put today for the order.

The prosecution story in brief is that the the informant Gunja Devi given an application to Sheohar Mahila Police Station and stated that her marriage was solemnized with Arvind Gupta on 03.12.2023 according to Hindu rites and rituals. In this marriage, her father has given gold, Silver, household items, furniture and cash of Rs. 09 lakh. After some time of marriage, all F.I.R. named accused persons started to demand dowry of a Bullet Motorcycle and gold chain as a dowry. When the demand was not fulfilled, they allegedly subjected her to mental and physical harassment. The informant stated that she was abused, assaulted, deprived of food. On 23.02.2006 all the accused persons confined her in a room and attempted to kill her by strangulation and assaulting her with sticks, rods, belts and other objects, causing serious injuries. Thereafter, believing her to be dead they allegedly threw her in a wheat field. Later, upon receiving information from passersby, her family members took her to Sadar Hospital Sheohar for treatment. Accordingly, the F.I.R. has been registered.

The Learned counsel for petitioners submitted that petitioners are innocent and they have committed no offence whatsoever as alleged. It is submitted that the F.I.R. as alleged is false, frivolous, baseless and concocted. The petitioners are quite innocent. The petitioners have been falsely implicated in this case. There is no specific allegation against the petitioners. The petitioners are relatives of the informant & they deserve anticipatory bail.

The Ld. Additional P.P. on behalf of the informant have opposed the prayer for anticipatory bail and stated that all the accused persons including the petitioners have demanded dowry from the informant and on non fulfillment of demand of dowry they have tortured her hence the bail petition filed by petitioner should be rejected.

Heard both the parties and perused the record.

After perusal of the F.I.R, it is clear that the case has been instituted u/s 126(2), 115(2), 85, 352, 351(2), 3(5) of B.N.S & 3/4 D.P. Act. From perusal of the F.I.R. it appears that the petitioners are relatives of the informant. There is no specific allegation against this petitioners. Hectic effort has been made compromise between the parties but the same goes in vain due to non-cooperation of the informant.

Thus, considering the aforesaid facts and circumstances of the case this Court is inclined to admit the petitioner to anticipatory bail. It is therefore ordered that in the event of arrest or surrender before the trial court within four weeks from the date of this order the accused persons/petitioners namely, 1. Manoj Sah @ Manoj Kumar Sah, 2. Rubby Devi and 3. Jaykishor Sah, are directed to be released on bail after furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000 (Ten Thousands) with two sureties with condition that the petitioners will comply the conditions mentioned under section 482(2) of B.N.S.S.
