Present: Sh.Deepak Kumar Jha, Ld. Addl. PP for the State.
Ms. Anjali Sahay, Ld. Counsel for the complainant company.
IO/ HC Deepak Kumar.

One letter is received under the signature of DCP, North. In the reply there is nothing mentioned about the assistance to be provided to the court to appreciate the evidence collected during the investigations. The ACP despite directions of the DCP to appear in the court is not appearing.

File is perused with the assistance of IO, ld.counsel for the complainant company and Ld. PP for the State.

It is pointed out by the counsel for the complainant company that complaint was given against the registered consumer / owner Amjad Baig also but no investigations have been carried out qua him although the Section 150 of Indian Electricity Act has been mentioned in the chargesheet. The name of Act for which complaint was given is Electricity Act, 2003 and the same is considered for the chargesheet also. The provision of Section 150 of Electricity Act, 2003 pertains to offence of abetment and in the chargesheet it is not mentioned whether sole accused Ashfaq Baig is the executor or the abettor. It is further pointed out that the witness Deepanshu Mishra who was the one of the member of the inspection team has not been joined into the investigation and his statement is not recorded. It
