

Dr. Rakesh Kumar Singh No.-I, Principal District Judge, Siwan
Civil Miscellaneous Case No.-80/2024

Santosh Sah V/s The State of Bihar & another

23-10-2024

Paravi has been filed on behalf of applicant. Report of Sheristedar has been submitted. Seen. Case called out. Ld. Counsel of applicant appear before the court and submitted that on account of not compliance of the court's order dated 04-03-2023 passed in Probate Case No. 06/2023 had been dismissed on 13-09-2024. That the applicant has not defaulted knowingly or deliberately rather the applicant had no knowledge of the date fixed and his lawyer clerk also did not inform him about the same and consequently no pairavi was done on 13-09-2024 on behalf the applicant and then the court was pleased to dismiss the same on default. That the applicant will not again committed such type of mistake or negligence which may impede the progress of the probate case.

So it is prayed that kindly recall the order dated 13-09-2024 passed in Probate Case No. 06 of 2023 and resorted its original file.

Heard, perused the case record. In the interest of justice his prayer is hereby allowed on the cost of Rs. 1000/- which shall be deposited in the account of Victim Compensation Scheme, D.L.S.A., Siwan.

Hence, the Miscellaneous Case is hereby disposed off.

(Dictated)

S/d

Principal District Judge