	06.08.2026	Case called out. Complainant is absent. There is no representation of the Complainant. No one has turned up before this Court on repeated calls. The present Complaint case is filed by the Complainant Asgari Begum (Hereinafter referred to as "Complainant") against 1. Md. Azim & Others, under sections 61(2), 316(2), 316(5), 319(2), 318(4), 308(3) & 318(3) of BNS. The Learned CJM, Gaya was please to made over the case and transferred the record to this Court for further inquiry and trial. Discussion Perused the record. Upon Perusal, it appears that the complainant has not been appearing before this court or filing any representation in this case for a long time. Moreover, this complaint petition has been pending for S/A of the Complainant since 06.03.2025. Thereafter, sufficient opportunity has been given to the complainant, but she did not appeared before this court for recording her S/A. A final opportunity was also granted to the complainant by this Court for his S/A on 16.05.2026. The court is not inclined to grant any further indulgence to the complainant, when the complainant has not been appearing continually before the court. Thus, granting any more opportunity to the complainant will be waste of courts precious time and energy. Since this matter can not be adjourned time and again in the anticipation that complainant may turned up before the court. Hence, considering the above mentioned fact, inquiry in this case is hereby closed. Order In the light of above discussion, this court is of opinion that there is no sufficient ground to proceed in this case. Hence, the Complaint case is hereby dismissed as default under section 226 of BNSS. The office clerk is directed to upload this order on official website. Thereafter, consign the record to record room after following all the procedural formalities. (Dictated)  (Saroj Kumar) JMFC-IX, Gaya Jee
