

T.A. 01/2000

23-06-2026

The Appellant and respondent are absent. Perused the case record.

It is evident from the perusal of the record that the present title appeal has been filed on 04-01-2000. The appellants have been absent from the proceedings of the instant appeal continuously and it appears that they are not interested for any further proceeding of the same, hence it appeared that they have lost interest in this case.

Therefore, the instant title appeal is hereby dismissed in default. Office is directed to cosign the case record as per rules.

DICT

DASJ - III