

T.A. 38/2017

19-05-2026

The Appellant is not in attendance. Perused the entire case record.

It is evident from the perusal of the record that the present title appeal has been filed on 01-05-2017 and admitted on 17-06-2017. and the matter has been pending for hearing and Lcr. The appellants have been absent from the proceedings of the instant appeal continuously for over years and it appears that they are not interested for any further proceeding of the same. Hence it appears they have lost interest in this case.

Therefore, the instant title appeal is hereby dismissed in default. Office is directed to consign the case record as per rules.

DICT.

DASJ - III