Order

02.04.2026

The petitioners above named apprehending their arrest in connection with Patepur PS Case no. 50/2026, u/s 191(2), 190, 126(2), 115(2), 109, 329(4), 303(2) of BNS Act, and hence instant petition for the grant of anticipatory bail has been filed on their behalf.

Heard the learned lawyer for the accused/petitioners as well as Learned APP on behalf of state.

The prosecution case in short is that on 22.01.2026 at about 07:00 AM, she was at home when her brother-in-law (i) Mahesh Rai, (ii) Mukesh Kumar, (iii) Mithesh Rai (iv) Devendra Rai, (v) Sulindra Rai, (vi) Dun Dun Rai, (vii) Sudhir Kumar, (viii) Randhir Kumar, (ix) Nitish Kumar, (x) Naveen Kumar, All of R/o Village-Bardiha, PS-Turki, PS- Patepur, started abusing her and started beating her with sticks and iron rods with the intention of killing her. beating, her head got cut and blood started flowing. Then, by grabbing her hair, they dragged her on the ground and beat her, due to which she became handicapped. They have snatched away even the jitiya from her neck. The further prosecution case is that that they entered her house and took away Rs. 10,000/- and threatened to kill her. She was treated in an injured condition at the PHC from where she was referred to Sadar hospital, Hajipur. Accordingly, with the said allegation FIR has been instituted.

Learned counsel for petitioners submitted that the petitioners are innocent and they have falsely implicated in this case. It is further submitted that petitioners have one criminal antecedent against their name in (i) Patepur PS Case no.-249/2023, u/s 341, 323, 354, 379, 504, 506/34 of IPC. It is further submitted that no occurrence as alleged took place ever since and entire false story has been cooked by the informant. It is further submitted that all the allegations against the petitioners are fake, concocted and baseless. It is at last submitted that petitioners are law abiding citizen and read to furnish bail bonds of local bailors. It is therefore prayed that petitioners be admitted to anticipatory bail.

Ld. APP opposed the petition and submitted that petitioners are named accused in the FIR and allegation against them is of assaulting the informant badly due to which she sustained injury. Hence their anticipatory bail application is fit to be rejected.

From perusal of record it transpires that the allegation against petitioners is of assaulting the informant badly due to which she sustained injury and then they took away Rs. 10,000/- from her house and threatened to kill her .

In the above facts, circumstances and also considering the fact that this is the case for the offence u/s 191(2), 190, 126(2), 115(2), 109, 329(4), 303(2) of BNS Act which are all bailable except the offence u/s 109 and 303(2) of BNS. There is case and counter case bearing Patepur PS Case no.41/2026. The accused/petitioners and informant are co-sharer and there is land dispute between them. The injured Sunita Devi has been examined by the doctor and the injury off Sunita Devi has been given which are (i) lacerated wound on skull frontal, (ii) pain and swelling on forehead, which are simple in nature caused by hard blunt object. As such the accused/petitioners are ordered to be enlarge on bail in the event of their arrest or surrender within 30 days from today on furnishing bail bond of Rs 10,000/- each with two sureties of the like amount to the satisfaction of the court below and also in the light of condition laid down u/s 482(2) of BNS.
