..... Petitioner

Order

11.03.2026 The petitioner above named has been remanded in this case on 12.01.2026 and since then he is judicial custody and today the learned counsel on behalf of petitioner filed bail petition for the grant of regular bail of petitioner.

The learned counsel on behalf of petitioner submit that the accused/petitioner was already been on bail. The case was fixed for charge and the accused was continuously been absent since 16.04.2020 and ultimately his bail bond was cancelled and the process of non bailable warrant of arrest was issued against him. He is in custody since 12.01.2026. It is submitted that no delay or latch has been committed by petitioner deliberately and the default so made in compliance of the conditions of bail bond was inadvertent. It is further submitted that petitioner undertakes to remain present physically before court as and when required into the matter. The learned counsel prays to release the petitioner on bail.

The learned Special Public Prosecutor opposed the prayer of learned counsel of petitioner and submitted that the bail bond of petitioner was cancelled due to his non appearance and hence his bail application is fit to be rejected.

Heard the parties and perused the record. On the perusal of record it transpires that the accused/petitioner was already been on bail. The case was fixed for charge and the accused
