Copy of the same has been served to the learned P.P In-charge for the state.

Sri Manindra Mohan Tiwari, learned Counsel for the petitioners and Sri Prabhu Prasad, learned P.P.In-charge for State are present before the Court.

The prosecution case in brief as narrated in the written application of the informant namely Guddi Kumari is that on 30.12.2025 at about 04:30 a.m, all the accused persons named in FIR including petitioner having lathi-danda and rod arrived at her shop at Madanpur Chauk Naurangiya and assaulted the informant and her father. When family members of the informant came to rescue them, accused persons assaulted them also. It has been stated that father, brother, sister and brother-in-law of the informant sustained injuries in the assault of accused persons. Informant and her family members were rescued by the local people. Accused persons also threatened the informant and her family members to kill them. On the basis of application of the informant, present case was registered.

It has been submitted on behalf of the petitioners that he is quite innocent and has committed no offence as alleged against them and have been falsely implicated in this case. Earlier no other bail application on behalf of the petitioner has been filed either before this court or any superior court. Petitioner Jiut Yadav is also named in Laukariya P.S.Case No.31/2015 and petitioner Satrudhan Yadav has got no criminal antecedent. It has been submitted that there is case and counter case between the parties. There is no specific allegation of assault against the petitioners. Offences leveled against the petitioners are not applicable. Hence, they may kindly be granted privilege of anticipatory bail.

On the other hand learned P.P In-charge for state vehemently opposed the prayer for bail of the petitioners and submitted that petitioners alongwith other co-accused persons have assaulted informant and her family members. Four persons including the informant have sustained injury in the assault of the accused persons.

Heard the parties and perused the case diary. From perusal of the same it transpires that allegation against the petitioners are not specific rather it is general and omnibus against all the accused persons. Excepting offence u/s-109(1) BNS, other offences areailable. There is case and counter case between the parties due to land dispute.
