

CS (Comm) No. 293-23
M/s Wahi Jewellers Vs. Ajay Taneja

15.03.2023

Present:- Sh. Ginish, Ld. Counsel for plaintiff.

Ld. Counsel for plaintiff has filed an application u/o 6 Rule 17 CPC alongwith amended memo of parties, amended plaint and statement of truth.

Since defendant has yet to be served, therefore, no need to issue notice of the said application.

Arguments heard on the aforesaid application.

Ld. Counsel for plaintiff submits that inadvertently mentions the name of plaintiff M/s Wahi Jewellers through Sh. Rajan Wahi instead of Sh. Rajan Wahi, proprietor of M/s Wahi Jewellers, therefore, plaintiff wants to amend the title of the suit.

I have heard submissions and gone through record.

Considering the overall facts and circumstances of the case, coupled with the fact that case is at nascent stage, I allow the said application. Amended memo of parties, amended plaint and statement of truth are taken on record. Accordingly the application stands disposed off.

Let summons of the suit be issued to defendant on filing of PF / RC-AD as well as through Whatsapp/email ID for 09.05.2023. Steps be taken within a week.

(Sanjeev Kumar Aggarwal)
District Judge (Commercial Court)-01,
Central, Tis Hazari Courts,
Delhi/15.03.2023