1] Applicant has filed this application under sec.482 of B.N.S.S. for grant of anticipatory bail apprehending his arrest in C.R. No.125/2026 of Majalgaon City police station for the offences punishable under section 318(1), 318(2), 318(4), 336(2), 338, 340(1) of B.N.S. and 3, 4 of the M.P.I.D. Act.

2] It is the case of prosecution that informant Prasad Parshwanath Ambure alongwith his family members is residing at Majalgaon. He is running D.T.P. Zerox shop namely Prasad Computers. He is having saving account in Muktai Urban Co-operative Society Ltd., Branch Majalgaon, Dist.Beed. He got acquainted with Chairman, Directors and Manager of said society. Applicant i.e. Director and other co-accused allured him to invest amount in F.D. under the pretext of high rate of interest. He has kept amount of Rs.25,000/- in F.D.R. and amount of Rs.46,000/- in R.D. Informant frequently went in the Patsanstha and demanded said amount from applicant and co-accused but they have avoided to repay the amount. On 15/09/2025 informant went in the Patsanstha and demanded the said amount from applicant and co-accused, but they refused to pay the same. However, applicant and co-accused avoided to repay the due amount to him and other depositors. They have misappropriated the amount of depositors by preparing forged documents. Thus, applicant and co-accused in collusion with each other have committed forgery and cheated informant and other depositors. Therefore, informant lodged report.

3] The learned Advocate for applicant submitted that he is falsely implicated in this crime. Allegations in the report are vague and not attracted against applicant. The investigation is completed. Nothing remained to be seized from the possession of applicant. Applicant is having permanent place of residence at the address mentioned in the application. He is law abiding person. There is no criminal antecedents against him. He is not likely to flee from justice, if released on bail. Therefore, applicant prayed for grant of anticipatory bail.

4] The learned Spl.PP. resisted application by filing say (Exh.9) stating therein that alleged offence is of serious nature. There is possibility of tampering of evidence by applicant. There is possibility of committing offence of similar nature, if he will be released on bail. It will become difficult to secure the presence of applicant, if he will be released on anticipatory bail. Hence, learned Spl.PP. prayed for rejection of application.

5] Perused the application and the say of ld. Spl.PP. Heard learned advocate for the applicant and learned Spl.PP. for the State.

6] It appears from record that investigation is almost completed. It appears from the record that applicant is having permanent place of residence at the address mentioned in the application. It prima facie appears from the record that, allegations made against applicant are vague and general in nature. It appears from record that nothing is to be recovered from the possession of applicant. It also appears from record that applicant is in service. It appears from record that he is the only earning member of his family and his family members are dependent upon him. There is no material on record to show that applicant will use his liberty to subvert justice or tamper with the evidence. It prima facie appears from record that there is no reasonable apprehension of tampering with witnesses. Admittedly, this is the stage of bail, hence merit and demerits of the case, cannot be considered.

7] There is nothing on record to show that, applicant will flee from justice, if released on anticipatory bail. In the circumstances, in my opinion, it cannot be said that custodial interrogation of the applicant is necessary for investigation of the crime. The apprehension of the Investigating Officer can be met by imposing conditions on applicant. In that view of matter, it is just and proper to release applicant on anticipatory bail. Considering the above reasons, applicant is entitled to be released on anticipatory bail. Hence, I proceed to pass the following order.

ORDER

1] Application is allowed.

- 2] The interim order dated 11/05/2026 passed below Exh.4 is hereby confirmed on the same terms and conditions.
- 3] Issue letter to P.I. Majalgaon City Police Station, accordingly.
