

07.11.2023

Present: Ld Counsel for the plaintiff/applicant.
Defendant/respondent in person.

The main file was summoned, however, the same has not been received. Accordingly, fresh robkar to summon the file bearing CS No 16965/16.

Today, the matter is listed for arguments on the review application.

It is submitted by the respondent/defendant appearing in person that he would have to request his counsel to appear in the present matter and despite request the counsel has not appeared today. He further submits that today neither he can argue the matter nor his counsel is appearing despite request and accordingly he seeks an adjournment.

Adjournment is strongly opposed by the Ld Counsel for applicant/plaintiff.

Perusal of the record shows that present review petition is pending since 2018.

In the interest of justice, matter is adjourned for arguments on review application on 18.11.2023.

It is made clear to the parties that no further adjournment on any ground whatsoever shall be granted in the present matter.
