

PW5 called out absent.

Counsel for petitioner prays time for keep present the PW5 for cross examination. But, this tribunal giving sufficient opportunity to the petitioners to present before the Court and offered themselves for cross examination.

But petitioner in this case neither represent the case nor ready to offered herself for cross examination. It shows that, petitioner is not interested to proceed with the case. Therefore, prayer of counsel is hereby rejected. The evidence lead by the petitioner also discarded and petitioner of the petition is dismissed for default.
