

Bail Application No. 1153/2026
State Vs. Asif
FIR No. 83/2013
PS: DBG Road

06.06.2026

This is an application under Sec. 483 BNSS filed on behalf of applicant/accused namely Asif for grant of regular bail.

Present : Sh. Pankaj Kumar Ranga, Ld. Addl. PP for the State.
Sh. Shah Alam, Ld. Counsel for convict/applicant

Ld. Counsel for convict/applicant submits that no bail application is pending before the Hon'ble High Court of Delhi and Hon'ble Supreme Court of India.

Reply to the bail application has been filed on behalf of IO. Same is taken on record. A copy thereof has been supplied to Ld. Counsel for convict/applicant.

Ld. Counsel for convict/applicant submits that convict is in JC since 13.05.2026. He further submits that the convict/applicant is a driver by profession and he could not appear before Ld. Trial Court as he had gone out of station to deliver goods. He submits that vide judgment dated 24.04.2026, convict/applicant has been convicted for the offences punishable under Sec. 279/304A IPC which are bailable in nature. He submits that convict/applicant is ready to furnish sound surety to ensure his presence before the Ld. Trial Court. He submits that convict/applicant may be granted bail.

Per contra, Ld. Addl. PP for the State submits that after his conviction, the convict/applicant absconded and did not appear before Ld. Trial Court and hence his presence may not be secured on the day of sentence, if he is granted bail and hence the present bail application should be dismissed.

I have heard the submissions and perused the record.

The convict has been convicted by the Ld. Trial Court vide judgment dated 24.04.2026. The convict/applicant did not appear before the Ld. Trial Court for the date fixed for order on sentence which shows that convict/applicant had absconded. Since the sentence order is yet to be passed by the Ld. Trial Court, the presence of convict/applicant may not be secured for the said purpose, if he is granted bail.

In view of the facts and circumstances of the case, I do not find any merits in the present bail application.

Accordingly, the present bail application filed under Sec. 483 BNSS for grant of regular bail is hereby dismissed.

The observations made herein shall not have any effect on the merits of case.

The bail application stands disposed off accordingly.

Copy of this order be given Dasti to all concerned.
