

FIR No. 113/2016
PS Pahar Ganj
State v. Rupesh Kumar Gupta

21.11.2020

Present: Sh. K. P. Singh, Addl. PP for State.
Sh. Sanjay Gupta, Counsel for victim/wife of deceased with victim/wife of deceased.
Sh. J.A.Chaudhary, Counsel for accused.
Accused on interim bail is not present.
SI Ajay Singh-IO is present.
Reply is filed of the State to the application of Smt.Pratima Gupta, wife of deceased.

Ld. Addl.PP submits that applicant did not cooperate with the police official in any manner whatsoever and did not join the enquiry into the allegations made in the application and complaints of threat. However, as per the report, accused-non-applicant was joined in the enquiry.

The applicant has appeared along with Ld. Counsel and submits that she was apprehensive that her statement will be changed by the police and the police on its own will manipulate her statement and it is for this reason that she has not stated anything when the police official visited in connection with the present application.

Ld. Addl.PP submits that some more time may be granted so that the enquiry can be made in the complaint received on 26.10.2020.

Fresh report be filed. In such facts and circumstances, for further report, put up on 26.11.2020 at 2 p.m.

The interim bail of accused-applicant Rupesh Kumar is extended till next date of hearing on same terms and conditions.

Application u/s 328 Cr.P.C.

Ld. Counsel for accused-applicant seeks time to file the relevant medical record which is relied upon for the purposes of application u/s 328 Cr.P.C. Copy of the medical record be filed in advance, to be served upon the complainant-victim-wife of the deceased.
