SC No. 263/2019
State Vs. Shehnawaj @ Tunda and Anr.
FIR No. 176/18
PS Timar Pur

01st August, 2023

An application was moved by accused Shehnawaj @ Tunda for providing SAG facility during court production or he may be allowed to appear through V.C. as he has threat from anti gangs Tillu Tajpuria gang, Nasir gang, Rohit Chaudhary gang and Sarik Chaudhary gang (Meerut) and that in the year 2020, he got attacked in jail no. 4, Tihar, and received 13 knife injuries.

Present: Sh. Md. Iqrar, Ld. Addl. PP for State.
Applicant/accused Shehnawaj @ Tunda produced from J.C. through V.C.
Inspector Naveen Kumar, OD Lockup I/C present on behalf of DCP, 3rd Batallion in person.

Report was called from Worthy DCP 3rd Battalion and it is reported that the safety and security of the applicant was reviewed by Reserve Inspector, 3rd Batallion, I/Cs Central jail, Tihar and OD Lockup, 3rd Batallion which reveal that there is no information about any such incident of attack, violence or extending threat to the applicant either in jail van during transportation from jail to lockup and back or during lodging in kharja lockup. It is requested that the incident regarding attack may be verified from the jail authorities. It is submitted that due to limited resources and considering the trend among the UTPs to seek separate van/SAG facilities is on the rise, it is not possible to provide SAG facilities to the applicant. It is submitted that necessary directions have been issued to all concerned and to keep him separate from the anti gangs.

As per the request of the Worthy DCP, 3rd Batallion as mentioned in the report, the concerned Superintendent, Central Jail no.

8/9, Tihar is directed to keep the applicant separate from the aforesaid anti gangs and not to handover the applicant with them to the same I/C escort guard for transportation on their common court date. The concerned jail superintendent is also directed to mention the name of such identified UTPs on the top of the custody warrants of the applicant in red ink so that he may be kept separate from the members of the anti gangs in the jail van as well as lockup kharja and during transportation, to avoid any untoward incident.

The application is disposed of with aforesaid directions. Copy of this order be sent to the Worthy DCP, 3rd Battalion and to concerned Jail Superintendent for information and necessary action.
