Hero Fincorp Limited Vs ASHA

Present: Sh.Anju Sharma Advocate for the complainant.

Bws issued against the accused but not received back. Perusal of the file has revealed that already on several occasions abortive attempts have been made to procure the attendance of the accused through repeated processes but the accused has still not appeared in the present case. Thus, the court is satisfied that the accused despite having knowledge of the pendency of the present case is intentionally avoiding service and not appearing in the court. The legislature has contemplated that trial of offence u/s 25 of the Payment and Settlement Act is to be completed within period of six months. Accordingly, the court is satisfied that the accused cannot be served through ordinary process and coercive steps needs to be taken to procure presence of the accused. As such, the accused is ordered to be served through non-bailable warrants for 16.09.2026.
