Dr Jannat Mahajan VS Kiran Sharma etc.

Present: Sh. Durgesh Dixit, Advocate for the complainant.

File taken up today as an application under Section 257 of Cr.P.C. (Section 280 of BNSS) and all other enabling provisions in this regard for putting up the case file and thereby humbly praying to grant permission to withdraw the complaint has been moved by learned counsel for complainant.

Further, fresh power of attorney on behalf of the complainant has been filed today.

At this stage, learned counsel for the complainant appeared and suffered a statement that in view of compromise Ex.C1, he does not wish to pursue the present complaint and wants to withdraw the same. His statement to this effect has been recorded separately.

Heard. In view of the above statement, this court is of the confirmed opinion that the complainant has discharged his liability of satisfying this Court of existence of sufficient grounds for permitting him to withdraw the present complaint and ergo, in view of the legal mandate of Section 280 of BNSS, 2023 (akin to Section 257 of Cr.P.C. 1973), the present complaint is hereby dismissed as withdrawn and accused persons namely Smt. Kiran Sharma and Kartavya Sharma are hereby acquitted of all the charges levelled against them. File be consigned to the record room after due compliance.

Ahlmad is directed that the file for consignment should be prepared as per clause 6 of chapter 16F volume-IV of High Court Rules in order (i.e. arranging the files in part A and B) so that the record which is to be destroyed/weeded out should be kept separately from the initial stage.
