Matter has been taken up through video conferencing vide direction from Hon'ble High Court of Delhi issued in order No.1/RG/DHC/2022 dt. 12.01.2022 with endorsement of this Office in order No(s).1826-1884/Judl./Covid19/F.14/SE/Saket/2022 dated 14.01.2022.

Present: Ld. APP for the State.

Accused Mohd Mustafa Alam is present.

BWs received back served served.

1. Today, the accused submits that he wishes to plead guilty for offence u/s 188 IPC. This court has warned and cautioned him that he is not bound to plead guilty and if he does so, then he may be sentenced as per law. However, accused still submits that he intends to plead guilty. Separate statement relating to plea of guilt of accused has been recorded.
2. In view of the facts and circumstances of the case and the plea of guilt of the accused, the accused is hereby convicted of the offence under Section 188 IPC.
3. Arguments on sentence heard. The convict requests for leniency on the ground that a mistake was committed by the convict and the convict is remorseful for this conduct. No previous conviction is alleged against the convict. Per contra, Ld. APP for the State has contended that the convict has admitted the guilt and maximum punishment should be imposed.
4. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and the nature of offence, convict is admonished under Section 3 Probation of Offenders Act, 1958. The convict shall not suffer disqualification, if any, attaching this conviction, in terms of Section 12 of the said Act. The convict is warned to be careful in future.
5. File be consigned to record room, after due compliance.
6. Copy of the order be given dasti to the convict.
