

ORDER BELOW EXHIBIT – 1 IN CIVIL APPEAL
NO.25 OF 2011.

Mr. R. L. Mehta, learned advocate for the appellants.

Mr. D. N. Bhatt, learned advocate for the respondent.

CORAM : A. S. PANDE: CHIEF JUDGE AND H. J. THAKER:
JUDGE:

ORDER AS PER: A. S. PANDE : CHIEF JUDGE:

Today when the matter was called neither the appellants nor their learned advocate remained present before the court. The matter is at the stage of final hearing. Therefore, from the record it clearly and ostensibly transpires that the appellants are negligent to proceed with the present Civil Appeal and it also transpires that appellants are not interested to further proceed with the Civil Appeal in question. Hence, this court has no alternative left except to dismiss this Civil Appeal. In view of the matter, we pass the following order.

O R D E R

- 1 The present appeal is dismissed under Order 41 Rule 17 of the Civil Procedure Code for want of prosecution.
- 2 Record and proceedings of H.R.P. Suit No.2922/2008 be sent back.
- 3 No order as to costs.

Pronounced and signed in the open court on this 10th day of October, 2024.
