

Cril. Misc. No.388/2024

Case is advanced. Both petitioner No.2 and respondent filed joint compromise petition stating that, the petitioner No.2 has settled the dispute with the respondent by receiving permanent alimony of Rs.5 lakh from the respondent and that she does not intend to proceed with the instant case. Further respondent has agreed to deposit Mudra Loan to the account of petitioner No.2 within 2 months. The petitioner No.2 has relinquished her rights with respect to property of the respondent. The petitioner No.2 has agreed to maintain the petitioner No.1 while the respondent has agreed to maintain another son by name Pranashul S/o Ramkumar Jugali. It is agreed that, the respondent has deposited Rs.2,24,055/- to the Sukanya Samruddi Yojana which is in the name of petitioner No.1 till 31.03.2025. It is agreed that the respondent has returned all the documents relating to the petitioners and that the petitioners have returned all the documents relating to respondent and his son by name Pranashul.

Cril. Misc. No.388/2024

This court is of the opinion that, the parties have compromised the matter of their own volition and that this court cannot force the petitioners to continue the instant case as it would cost prejudice. Accordingly, following order is passed:

ORDER

The instant Criminal Miscellaneous is stands closed as settled.

Civil Judge & JMFC
Banahatti