Cri.M.A./144/2024

Heena Kausar Shaikh Javed Vs. Javed Chotu Shaikh

ORDER BELOW EXH. 01

This is an application filed under Section 125(3) of Cr.P.C. pending for the evidence.

02. Today, applicant present before this Court and filed sulahnama vide Exh. 22 stating that, marriage between herself and non-applicant is performed on dated 13/08/2023 as per rites prevailed in Muslim religion. From the very wedlock she does not bear any issue. Now, she is not pregnant from non-applicant.

03. Till December 2023, they cohabited well. But, on the count of differences in thoughts, on futile count quarrel was occurring between them. Their parents and relatives tried to understand them, but in vain. As such, since December 2023, they are living separately from each other. There are no chances of their cohabitation. As such, the decided to be separated from each other. Accordingly, meeting to that effect in the presence of both applicant and non-applicant, their parents and their close relatives is taken place and as per the decision non-applicant paid an amount of ₹ 7,35,000/- to her as to one time maintenance amount for life including Meher amount. Said amount is received by applicant. Even she got divorce (khulahnama) from the non-applicant on 20/07/2026 in the presence of kazi. Accordingly, they have been separated. In future applicant shall not ask any relief as to any sought of maintenance from non-applicant. She shall not filed any litigation against non-applicant and his family members. Even she shall not find any matter under the provisions of the Rights of Muslim Women on Divorce, 1986. It is also decided in them that, applicant shall withdraw PWDVA NO. 27/2024 and R.C.C. No. 331/2024. Accordingly, it is prayed for withdrawal of the very matter.

04. The applicant appeared before Court along with her father and her Counsel. She is verified by the Court by reading over the content of compromise-deed vide Exh. 22. Applicant admitted that, she knows the content of compromise-deed and she signed the same voluntarily without any pressure. Even she admitted that, she accepted an amount of ₹ 7,35,000/- and she does not want to proceed with the very matter. Whereas, there has been amicable settlement between rival parties out of the Court. The way, no purpose will be served by keeping this matter pending on the file of this Court. Rather interest lies in disposing off the same as withdrawn. Accordingly, I pass the following order.

ORDER

1. The application is disposed off as withdrawn.
2. Case paper be filed after appeal period is over.
