

Smt. Madhu SB advocate filed vakalath for defendant.

Both parties and both counsels are present and filed compromise petition U/O. 23 Rule 3 R/w. Sec. 151 of CPC.

Further, filed a memo requesting this court to refund the entire court fee in favour of counsel for plaintiff.

The contents of compromise petition U/O. 23 Rule 3 R/w. Sec. 151 of CPC are read over to the parties in the language of Kannada. The parties have understood the contents of compromise petition U/O. 23 Rule 3 R/w. Sec. 151 of CPC and submitted that the contents are true and correct. The parties have accepted terms of compromise petition U/O. 23 Rule 3 R/w. Sec. 151 of CPC .

The proposed compromise is in the interest of both the parties to end the litigation between them. Hence, following

ORDER

Compromise petition U/O. 23 Rule 3 R/w. Sec. 151 of CPC is allowed as sought for. The suit of the plaintiff is decreed in terms of compromise petition U/O. 23 Rule 3 of CPC R/w. Sec. 151.

Draw preliminary decree accordingly.,

Office is directed to refund entire court fee to the counsel for plaintiff.

For acceptance by: 11.07.2026

Senior C.J., and JMFC.,
Sindhanur.