He has pressed the application u/s 9 of Arbitration & Conciliation Act read with Section 151 CPC for passing the ex-parte order in the nature of ad-interim relief by appointing Receiver to take the possession of the vehicle-in-question. He submits that at the time of filing the petition, there were more than 04 defaults in payment of EMIs by the respondent and the petitioner has apprehension that the respondent who is the borrower may dispose of the vehicle-in-question if the Receiver is not appointed.

Heard. Record perused.

As per averments made in the petition, the petitioner is a Non-Banking Finance Company and the respondent approached the petitioner company for grant of loan facility for purchasing a vehicle having model and make ROYAL ENFIELD – BULLET 350 THE STANDARD BLACK, bearing Registration No. HR-87S-2051, Engine No. J3A5FMR2036490, Chasis No. ME3J3B5FMR2010589. The petitioner after going through the representation made by the respondent, granted loan facility of Rs.2,14,299/- to the respondent vide Loan Agreement bearing No. TWF-9088980 dated 01.01.2025. The said amount of Rs.2,14,299/- was released in favor of the respondent from which the vehicle in question having model and make ROYAL ENFIELD – BULLET 350 THE STANDARD BLACK, bearing Registration No. HR-87S-2051, Engine No. J3A5FMR2036490, Chasis No. ME3J3B5FMR2010589 was financed which was under exclusive hypothecation of the petitioner company. As per the above Loan Agreement, the respondents were required to repay the loan amount of Rs.2,14,299/- in 48 installments out of which 47 installments, each of Rs.6,249/- and 1 installment is of Rs.6,022/-. However, the respondent after availing the loan facilities failed to make the payment as per the repayment schedule as agreed between the parties and the petitioner was constrained to terminate the loan agreement vide termination notice dated 14.10.2025 and called upon the respondent to pay foreclosure amount. It is stated that as per statement of accounts dated 03.11.2025 filed along with the petition, the respondent has failed to pay more than 04 EMIs and the petitioner has apprehension that respondents may dispose off/sell/transfer the financed vehicle to deprive the petitioner to recover the amount due.

In support of its claim, the petitioner has placed on record copy of two wheeler finance agreement, statement of account of the respondent, the financed vehicle details and copy of legal notice dated 14.10.2025.

After going through the petition, the Court is of the considered opinion that prima facie case for grant of an order for interim custody of the vehicle in question by the petitioner is made out. Delaying or postponing the grant of interim protection is likely to defeat the object of filing the present petition.

Accordingly, application under Section 9 of Arbitration & Conciliation Act read with Section 151 CPC seeking ex-parte order is allowed and Sh. Akhilesh Sharma, Executive/Authorized Officer of petitioner company is appointed as Receiver in this case to take the custody of vehicle in question, having model and make ROYAL ENFIELD – BULLET 350 THE STANDARD BLACK, bearing Registration No. HR-87S-2051, Engine No. J3A5FMR2036490, Chasis No. ME3J3B5FMR2010589 from the respondent or his agent.
