

CNR NO:-MHAM070018782022Order below Exh.1
(Passed on this 18th day of January, 2023)

This is the application filed by applicant for grant of Legal Heir Certificate under Section 2 of Bombay Regulation Act, 1827.

2. According to applicant, her husband namely Bansidhar Chhagansingh Naikwal died on 10.07.2022 at Wadali, Tq. Dist. Amravati. Following persons are legal heirs of Bansidhar Chhagansingh Naikwal. Except them, there are no legal heirs of Bansidhar Chhagansingh Naikwal. Hence, she prayed for issuance of Legal Heir Certificate.

Sr.No	Name of legal heirs	Relationship with deceased.
1.	Shobhabai Bansidhar Naikwal	Widow
2.	Om Bansidhar Naikwal	Son
3.	Rajesh Bansidhar Naikwal	Son
4.	Mayabai Vishwanath	Daughter
5.	Mona Dipak Sarvare	Daughter
6.	Mamta Hemraj Beniwal	Daughter

3. On receipt of application, this Court has called objection by way of paper publication. In spite of issuance of notice, nobody has raised any objection. The contents of application are supported by affidavit of applicant at Exh. 08. Accordingly, to substantiate claim of applicant, she reiterated therein the contents of application Exh. 01. In support of her oral version, she has placed reliance on following documents - original copy of death certificate of deceased at Exh. 09, verified copy of Adhar cards at Exh. 10 to Exh. 15, and notice published in Daily Newspaper "Dainik Mahasagar" dated 16.12.2022 at Exh. 16.

4. Applicant reiterated therein the contents of application Exh.1. She has proved death certificate of deceased and also Aadhaar cards. The testimony of applicant and documents referred above corroborates contents of application. The documentary evidence supported the oral testimony of applicant. Hence, it appears that applicant and above mentioned persons are legal heirs of deceased and they are entitled for legal heir certificate. Thus, there is no impediment in granting Legal Heir Certificate in favour of aforesaid persons. Hence, I proceed to pass the following order.

ORDER

1. The application is allowed.
2. Issue Legal Heir Certificate in favour of above mentioned person as legal heirs of deceased Bansidhar Chhagansingh Naikwal.
3. This certificate shall not be valid for mutation of any immovable or movable property.
4. Accordingly, application is disposed of.
