For First Party :	Ld. adv. Mr. A. J. Bhatt.

: Award :

(1). The first party herein is the company named Inox Wind Limited whereas the second party is the union. The above first as well as second party for the sake of brevity and deciding this industrial dispute are referred as 'the opponent' and 'the applicant', respectively.

(2). The present industrial dispute was forwarded for adjudication to this Court by the Deputy Labour Commissioner, Ahemdabad, as the conciliation proceeding before him could not fructify, vide letter no.18930, dtd.11-9-2020, as per order no.KHHSMC/R/K/34671/IDR/AJ/528/2020 dtd.NIL. The terms of reference is related to seeking amounts of overtime salary for the concerned workman for the period from dt.1-4-2014 to dt.30-9-2019.

(3). In the present case the applicant union had furnished their statement of claim / justification and the opponent company has submitted its written statement. Then after the case was pending for submitting evidence from the applicant side, at that juncture the applicant union has furnished withdraw pursis at Ex.7 stating that in the instant case the workman is paid the overtime salary as per law so they are withdrawing the said case. The said pursis of union was recorded and since the applicant side has submitted the above stated pursis so nothing more is required to be done in the instant case. Hence the present case is disposed off as withdrawn in this Lokadalat with no such order as to cost.

(4). The registry of Labour Court, Ahemdabad has to undertake the procedure of providing copy of this award to the concerned party, as provided in rule no.32 of the Labour Court (Practice and Procedure) Rules, 1947, after the publication of this award.
