

1) Chamkaur Singh and others Vs. State of Pb (BA 2707/2020)

2) Daljeet Kaur Versus State of Punjab (BA 2709/2020)

FIR No.200/2020 of P.S.Sarai Amanat Khan.

Under Sec.341/323/427/379/506/34 IPC. (Sec.354/379-B/201 IPC added lateron)

~~~~~

Present: Shri J.S.Kot, Advocate for the accused-applicants.
APP for the State with Shri G.S.Bhullar, Advocate for the complainant.

Under disposal by means of this common order, are two separate applications under Section 438 Cr.P.C., the first moved by accused-applicants Chamkaur Singh and Shamsher Singh and the second by accused-applicant Daljeet Kaur, whereby all these accused prayed for the concession of anticipatory bail in respect of the offences punishable under Sec.341/323/427/379/506/34 of IPC in respect whereof they were extended the concession of interim bail vide orders dated 27.11.2020. However, subsequently, offences punishable under Sec.354/379-B/201 of IPC were also added in the case on the basis of statement of the complainant that during the course of the occurrence, the accused persons had also outraged her modesty besides snatching the mobile phone of the complainant.

As per records of investigation produced before me, the investigating agency has also conducted investigation with regard to the phone of complainant according to which the phone is lying switched off ever since the date of occurrence and no other sim is also being used in the phone of the complainant as per report obtained on the basis of its IMEI number. The accused-applicants though have joined investigation in the light of interim orders passed by this Court, they have not got recovered the snatched phone of the complainant.

Accordingly, in order to enable the investigating agency to effect recovery of the mobile phone of complainant and addition of offences punishable under Sec.354/379-B/201 of IPC, I am of the considered view that the accused do not deserve the concession of anticipatory bail and their applications for the purpose stand dismissed accordingly. A copy of this order be placed on the file of the connected bail application and the files be consigned to the Record Room.
