

Bail Matter No. 146/2026
State Vs. Vikash @ Bhopu
FIR No. 749/2017
PS Mukherjee Nagar
U/s. 379/356/34 IPC

22.01.2026

This is an application under Section 483 BNSS for grant of regular bail moved on behalf of the accused / applicant namely Vikash @ Bhopu.

Present: Dr. Sarita Rani, Ld. Addl. PP for the State.

Sh. Ranvir Singh, Ld. counsel for the accused / applicant.

IO HC Virender is present.

Reply to the bail application filed. Taken on record.

1. It was argued by Ld. Counsel for applicant/accused that the applicant/accused is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in the present case. It was further argued that applicant/accused is in JC since 15.10.2025. It was argued further that the investigation in the present FIR has already been completed so there is no custodial interrogation of the accused is required and the chargesheet has already been filed, hence the accused / applicant is entitled for bail. It was argued by the Ld. Counsel for the accused / applicant that the trial will certainly take considerable long time to conclude. It was further argued that no purpose would be served to keep the accused in custody. That accused is ready to abide by all the terms and conditions. It is prayed that a lenient view be taken.

2. On the other hand, Ld. Addl. PP for the State vehemently opposed the bail application and argued that allegations against the applicant are grave and serious in nature and if applicant is released on bail, he may threaten the witnesses and he may also jump the bail. A prayer is made for dismissal of the bail application.

3. I have heard the Ld. Addl. PP for State and Ld. Counsel for applicant/accused and perused the report filed by the IO.

4. The allegations against the accused / applicant are serious in nature. It is further reported by the IO that the accused /applicant is a habitual offender and has a long criminal history with involvement in more than 25 cases. It is reported by the IO, that he will commit crime against after coming out of jail.

Further it is held in the case of Virupakshappa Gouda And Another Vs The State of Karnataka and Another SLP (Crl.) No. 8781/2016 that filing of charge-sheet itself is no ground for grant of bail and rather filing of the charge-sheet establishes that after due investigation the investigating agency, having found material, has placed the charge-sheet for trial of accused person.

There is every possibility if released on bail there are chances of influencing or threatening the witnesses including the complainant. Moreover, the allegations against the applicant/accused are grave and serious in nature.

5. Considering the grave and serious allegations made above, no ground for grant of bail is made out at this stage. The application stands dismissed.

Application is disposed off accordingly.

6. It is clarified that nothing stated herein shall tantamount to an expression of opinion on the merits of the case.

7. Copy of the order be given dasti to the Ld. Counsel for the applicant/accused as well as be sent to concerned IO, Ld. Secretary, DLSA (North), through all possible modes, as per rules.
