State Vs. Aman Adowalia
FIR No. 207/07.12.2018
U/Ss 406, 420, 120-B IPC
Police Station Nangal

Present : Sh. V.K Soni, Adv. Counsel for accused-applicant Aman Adowalia.
Ld. APP for the State .

Heard upon the application for bail moved by the applicant-accused in which it is pleaded that he has been falsely implicated in the present case and has not committed any such offence as alleged in the FIR. The applicant is in judicial custody since 08.05.2019 and is no more required for the purpose of investigation, hence it is prayed that he be released on bail.

Notice of the bail application was given to the Ld.APP who has orally opposed the bail application and he has not filed any written reply.

Heard. Police record seen and zimini signed. In the instant case the accused had been arrested u/s 406, 420, 120-B IPC. The Challan is yet to be presented as the investigation is still pending. Furthermore, the applicant/accused has also been arrested in FIR No.157 Dated 05.10.2018, P.S Nangal, under Section 420 IPC, the allegation leveled in the FIR no.157 are the same as that in the present FIR being giving allurement for sending the complainant party abroad. Hence, it shows that the applicant/accused is habitual offender. Keeping in view the facts and circumstances of the case, I am of the view that these are heinous crimes and at this stage when the investigation is still not completed, there are chances that accused-applicant may temper with the prosecution evidence which may hamper the investigation, as such I do not find appropriate to grant concession of bail to the accused, at this stage. Thus the bail application is hereby dismissed and disposed of accordingly. Paper be attached with the remand papers.
