

MACP No.30/17
Kavita Sharma vs. Harsh & Ors.

06.12.2017

Present: Ms. Kanta Chaudhary, Ld. Counsel for the petitioner.

Notices of both the respondents issued through IO have been received back unserved and reports have been perused. The offending vehicle was not insured and the respondents have already stopped appearing.

Notice to IO was also issued for today for initiating steps for modification of the release order of the offending vehicle as it was felt that sufficient security was not taken by the Ld. MM concerned at the time of release of the vehicle. It is reported that the mother of IO has expired. Let fresh notice be issued to IO/SHO to initiate steps for re-possession and sale of the offending vehicle in terms of the previous order.

Put up for further proceedings on 07.02.2018. In the meanwhile, let fresh notice to both the respondents through IO be issued for the date fixed.
