

State Vs. Sukhjinder Singh @ Ajay
BA no. 2860/2018
FIR No. 100 dated 20.08.2018
u/s 21/61/85 NDPS Act
Police Station : Sri Hargobinpur

Present : Sh. Raghbir Singh Bajwa Advocate Counsel for the accused-applicant.
Ms. Neeraj Azad APP for the State.

Heard on the bail application moved by accused-applicant through counsel. Perusal of the police file reveals that the accused-applicant was arrested in this case for commission of offence under Section 21 of NDPS Act and only 110 miligrams of heroine is stated to have recovered from him which falls within the category of small quantity and accused is in Judicial custody since 21.08.2018 and alleged recovery has already been effected. So, accused is no more required for custodial interrogation as he has already remanded to judicial custody and nothing is to be recovered from accused. It is general principle of criminal jurisprudence that accused is presumed to be innocent until proved guilty and guilt of accused is to be proved during trial, however, conclusion of investigation, presentation of challan and then conclusion of trial will take sufficient long time So, no useful purpose would be served by keeping the accused-applicant behind the bars rather it would be burden on State Exchequer. As such, accused-applicant is ordered to be released on bail on furnishing bail bonds in the sum of Rs. 30,000/- with one surety in the like amount, failing which accused be kept in custody

Bail bonds and surety bonds of accused furnished which are accepted and attested, Let release warrants of accused be issued immediately. Papers be attached with the remand papers.
