

GURJANT SINGH ALIAS JANTU VS PUNJAB STATE

Present: Sh. N. K. Bhambi, Advocate, for the applicant
Sh. Ricky Chodha, APP for the State

This order of mine shall dispose of bail application moved by counsel for the accused/applicant Gurjant Singh @ Jantu on the ground that accused is in custody for more than two months and he has been falsely implicated in the present case and has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution in the FIR. Therefore, he may be granted bail.

2. Ld. APP for the State orally stated that during checking, stolen article was recovered from the accused person and he admitted that he is habitual to commit thefts and prayed that bail application of accused be dismissed.

3. I have heard ld. Counsel for the accused-applicant and ld. APP for the State and have gone through the papers.

4. On receiving application, record of original file was perused. Perusal of judicial file shows that accused is in custody in the present case for more than two months. Charge has already been framed against the accused. Therefore, no useful purpose would be served by keeping the accused behind the bar any more rather it would be an extra burden on the State exchequer. Therefore, accused, Gurjant Singh @ Jantu, is admitted to bail on his furnishing bail bonds in the sum of ₹ 50,000/- with one surety of the like amount. Requisite bonds not furnished. Papers be attached with remand papers.
