WINGS PHARMACEUTICALS P LTD Vs. IGMA LTD

03.06.2026 (At 11:33 AM)

Present : Ms. Prashansa Singh, Ms. Charu Raghav and Ms. Sunita, Ld. counsels for plaintiff.

Ld. counsels pointed out today that in para no. 50 of the plaint pertaining to the cause of action, plaintiff has already referred to the name of some markets, which fall within territorial jurisdiction of this court. I have gone through the same and on the basis of pleadings made therein, the rectified amended plaint is accepted on the record.

Ld. counsel argued on application under Order 39 Rule 1 & 2 CPC in order to secure ex parte interim relief. In the course of hearing of those submissions, my attention was taken to several parts of plaint as well as documents which include order granted in favour of plaintiff by Hon'ble High Court of Delhi in another suit. I have also perused the sale figures as pleaded in the plaint and the specified value as pleaded in the amended plaint. It becomes necessary for me to look into the relevant pleading of plaintiff before Hon'ble High Court of Delhi, especially in respect of specified value of their intangible right. It is relevant to mention that same intangible right was taken up for protection before Hon'ble High Court of Delhi, which is subject matter of suit before this court. I need to understand the basis for different specified value, if so given by plaintiff at different points of time and before different courts.

Ld. Counsel submits that she is, at present, not well aware about the specified value pleaded before Hon'ble High Court of Delhi.

Let a certified copy of plaint filed before Hon'ble Delhi High Court be placed on the record.

Ld. Counsel submitted that plaintiff requires urgent relief in the present suit, however, in my opinion, before proceeding further to grant any kind of relief, this court has to be sure about its jurisdiction, which is very much connected with the specified value of the matter.

Put up on 06.07.2026.
